

has a major violation of corporate governance principles or may damage the long-term value of the Bank's shareholders on a specific issue, the Bank will from time to time inquire the management of the investee about the handling situation, and does not rule out the collaboration opportunity with other investors to demand the response.

Principle 5 Establish clear voting polic